St. Anselm's Parish is a Catholic community formed by families, individuals and clergy that worship together, celebrate the sacramental life of the Church, and seek to live the Gospel of Jesus Christ everyday. We welcome, serve, and educate.

Dear parishioners,
 We are back in the ordinary season of the Liturgical Year. This Sunday we celebrate the solemnity of the Holy Trinity. What do we know about the Trinity? What we know was revealed by Jesus. And from what Jesus has revealed to us we make statements about the Trinity. The statements that we make also speak about us and our lives. We say, "God is eternal" and we know that our destiny is to be eternal with God. We say "God is holy. So, we too strive to lead holy lives. We say, "God is love." So, we are called to live in love. We say, "God is good." We are basically good and called to do good always. We say, "God is unity and community." We are called to live in harmony, peace and love with every person that God has created!

I would like to thank all the altar servers for their dedicated service. You helped the parish to pray every Sunday! Thank you! I would like to thank also Joan Mann Thomas who is in charge of the Altar Servers. Thank you for all the time, effort and resources you put in to make the program a success. Thank you!

Yours Sincerely,
 Fr. Jose Shaji, Pastor

Thank you to all of the wonderful St. Anselm Church Altar Servers. These 4th—8th grade (and beyond) students volunteer their time to come get trained, serve periodically at each of the weekend Masses and make the Masses truly special with their attention to details (like smiling frequently). Thank you St. Anselm Parish Bakers for donating delicious goodies the St. Anselm School Festival of Fun, Cake Wheel booth, last Saturday. The cake wheel is always a big hit, and many players went home with tasty treats of cakes, cookies, cupcakes, bars and more. It is so nice to see parish volunteers helping out at St. Anselm School fundraising events. We are truly blessed at St. Anselm Parish. Thank you!

Thank YOU!! Your continued support of REST is inspiring. At the first Accountability Session, held here at St. Anselm's with the Dist. 2 Supervisorial candidates, there was an overflow crowd, with some watching from the courtyard. At that time we presented the candidates over 7,500 signatures of support. The District 3 Accountability Session was held less than a week later and the signature count had expanded to 8,333. This kind of support, plus your continued prayers, should empower those who have the vote on this issue to make a Permanent Home for REST a reality.

Have you moved? Or changed your phone number or email address? Please let us know. We are updating our database and want to make sure the information we have in our database is accurate. 415 453-2342.

Do you know someone who can't get to Mass? Let us know and we will have a Eucharistic Minister come to them and offer prayers and Holy Communion.

Save the date: Wed., June 8th 7:00 pm Centennial Hall. Fr. Joe Eagan will arrive at St. Anselm Parish to speak about the Joy of Love and what Pope Francis has to say on the subject. All are welcome to attend.

The Joy of Love (Amoris Laetitia) brings together the results of the two Synods on the Family convoked by Pope Francis in 2014 and 2015.

Striking for its breadth and detail—and firmly grounded in the challenges of family experiences—the Joy of Love affirms the rich and complex reality of family life with pastoral care, speaking the language of experience and hope.

Pope Francis reaches out to married couples, parents, and children in a spirit of accompaniment, asking everyone to read slowly, paying special attention to what applies most to our different needs. The Joy of Love is truly remarkable for its practical and concrete suggestions. It also challenges us to be understanding in the face of complex and painful situations.

Archbishop Answers Mercy Questions on Upcoming Radio Show IHRadio.com Archbishop Cordileone responded to callers' questions on a variety of topics related to mercy in an interview with Ed Horodko of Immaculate Heart Radio.

(Prayer of Blessed Cardinal John Henry Newman)

Walker, your footsteps are the road, and nothing more
Walker, there is no road, the road is made by walking.
Walking you make the road and turning to look behind you see the path you never again will step upon.
Walker, there is no road, only foam trails on the sea.

(Poem by Antonio Machado, in Jim Harrison's In Search of Small Gods)

Good day, Fr George

The Holy Trinity

What you should know and share about the Holy Trinity. Blog by Jimmy Akin, National Catholic Register.

✦ The word TRINITY comes from the Latin word 'Trinitas,' which means 'three' or 'triad'.

✦ The term was thought to have been used first around A.D. 170 by Theophilus of Antioch, in reference to "God, and His Word, and His wisdom."

✦ Expressed by the Catholic Church, faith in the Trinity is professing belief in the oneness of God in whom there are three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The three divine Persons are only one God and because each of them equally possesses the fullness of the one and indivisible divine nature. They are very distinct from one another. The Father generates the Son; the Son is generated by the Father; the Holy spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son. cccc48

✦ The Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian Faith. Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Cccc44

✦ The church infallibly defined the dogma of the Trinity in two stages, at the First Council of Nicaea (AD 325) and the First Council of Constantinople (AD 381).

✦ The Trinity can only be proved through the divine revelation that Jesus brought us, not by natural reason or from the old Testament alone. This mystery was revealed by Jesus Christ and it is the source of all the other mysteries. Cccc45

✦ We can show from scripture that there is only one God made clear in the Old Testament "Thus says the Lord, the king of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: "I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god." Is 44:6

✦ The Father is proclaimed as God in the New Testament; "Blessed be the God and Father of our lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort." 2 Co. 1:3

✦ We know that the Son is God as proclaimed in the New Testament; When Thomas answered Jesus "My Lord and my God!" Jn 1:1, 14

✦ The Holy Spirit can be shown as God, because he speaks and is lied to. Acts. 13:2 & Acts 5:3-4

✦ The Father, Son and Spirit are distinct persons as Jesus prays to His father, Father who sends and Spirit who comes.

✦ But when the Counselor comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness to me. John 15:26.
