St. Anselm School admits students of any race, color, and national and/or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded to or made available to students at this school. St. Anselm does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, and national and/or ethnic origin, age, sex or disability in administration of educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs and athletic and other administered programs.

The St. Anselm School's Heavenly Bash is the school’s biggest fundraiser of the year...and one of the activities to help raise funds is a 50/50 Bash Raffle -- meaning a family wins 50% of the proceeds gathered from the Bash Raffle tickets purchased and the remaining 50% goes to the school for operational expenses and student scholarships. Following masses on Oct. 21-22 and Oct. 28-29 a representative from St. Anselm School will be selling tickets outside of the parish. Each ticket is $50, but if you buy three you get one free. Please join us in supporting our parish school by purchasing raffle tickets...and having chance at winning the grand prize..drawing to be held on November 4th -- winner does not need to be present to win!!

OKTOBERFEST
A huge St. Anselm THANK YOU to everyone involved with Oktoberfest— organizers, workers, and guests. A great time was had by all. The decorations, as well as the live music provided by “The Jolly Bavarians”, created a very authentic Oktoberfest feeling. The German Fare which included Brats, sauerkraut, German potato salad, and pretzels was absolutely delicious. The Grillers did a perfect job. And of course one of the busiest areas was the bar. The German beers and wines made the Oktoberfest evening complete.
Special thanks to Mike Silva, Nick Svenson, Cathy Cunningham, and Brian Blackman for their “above-and-beyond” commitment to making sure that the evening celebration was a success. We look forward to Oktoberfest 2018!
